LOCAL HISTORY | 2. TREASURES
ANSWERS

BUSHEY HEATH

BATTLE OF BRITAIN AIRCREW

Less than 2 miles from Bentley Priory Museum is a small group of roads named after Battle of Britain pilots. These houses once belonged to the Ministry of Defence and were home to serving RAF personnel.

Can you find roads named after the following pilots? Some are featured in the Museum's Rotunda gallery (in bold), and information about them all can be found at www.bbm.org.uk

Geoffrey Allard	Ronald Beamish
Gordon Bushell	Brendon Finucane
James Gillan	Ian Gleed
Archibald McKellar	John Mungo-Park
James Nicolson	Harry Prowse
Denis Robinson	Edward Thorn

A model of Sergeant Denis Robinson on display at Bentley Priory Museum

STANMORE

BENTLEY PRIORY RESIDENTS

Around Stanmore, a number of roads are named after residents or historical figures connected to Bentley Priory over the site's 850 year history.

Can you find out a bit more about the people these roads are named after?

Match up the name to the description of the person!

Glanville Mews
Robert de Glanville

Adelaide Close
Queen Adelaide

Cranmer Close
Thomas Cranmer

Abercorn Road
John James Hamilton, Earl of Abercorn

Dowding Place
Air Chief Marshal Sir Hugh Dowding

Gordon Avenue
Frederick Gordon

Aunt to Queen Victoria, and once a Queen herself who lived and died at Bentley Priory

Commander-in-Chief at RAF Bentley Priory during the Battle of Britain

Victorian businessman who set up a hotel at Bentley Priory

Archbishop who sold Bentley Priory to King Henry VIII during the Reformation

Probable founder of the 12th century Priory

Nobleman who bought Bentley Priory in 1788 and lived there with his family for 30 years